Privacy

I understand that in order to consider this application, the Redress Programme will collect personal information about the Old Boy that is contained in their Dilworth school file. This information will verify that they were a Dilworth Old Boy and confirms the years of attendance at the school. It may also include other information about their experiences whilst attending Dilworth.

The Redress Programme is committed to managing personal information with sensitivity and respect. We will use and share personal information only for the purposes of considering an application for redress and managing our internal confidential processes. The third parties we may disclose personal information to are set out in detail in our Privacy Statement, but they include the Dilworth Independent Inquiry (with your consent) to access your prior statement, emergency services if there are concerns about your safety and wellbeing, Dilworth School to access the Old Boy’s school file, or Dilworth Trust Board to advise it of the Redress Panel’s decision regarding a redress award in response to this application. The full Privacy Statement is available at www.dilworthredress.org.nz/privacy/

Consent to obtain documentation
